Dennis Boehmer, Code Compliance Inspector, was sworn in by Special Magistrate Fuller and testified as to the condition of the property, as well as the notice provided to the property owner. Billy Wiggins, former neighbor, was sworn in by Special Magistrate Fuller and testified that he did not put up the fence in question. He stated there was a spoken agreement with Mr. Derwick

Mr. Derwick stated Suncoast Fencing put up most of the fence but after issues with setback requirements canceled the permit. He believes Mr. Wiggins put up some as well. Mr. Wiggins stated he did not construct any fence; he did put up a gate.

Mr. Boehmer recommended the property owners be found in violation of the above referenced codes with the violations to be corrected by March 26, 2022 by going to Community Development at Port Orange City Hall and applying for a fence permit. Accused should be further ordered to contact the Code Enforcement Officer to arrange for a re-inspection of the property to verify compliance with the order. Mr. Boehmer requested any future violations under this ordinance be considered repeat. The cost sheet in the amount of $60.44 was tendered into evidence and accepted by Special Magistrate Fuller with no objections.

Special Magistrate Fuller granted the recommendation with an amendment to include removing the fence. The property owner has until March 26, 2022 to go to Community Development at Port Orange City Hall and apply for a fence permit or remove the fence or a daily fine in the amount of $200.00 per day shall be imposed.
